

Magic Breakfast x Teacher Tapp

Survey Insights Report
September 2024

Teacher tapp

Overview of the results

The results from the questions we asked about free breakfast clubs in primary schools are in. The analysis you'll see in this document is for all teachers in England, including those in private schools.

Here are the questions asked on 20th August 2024:

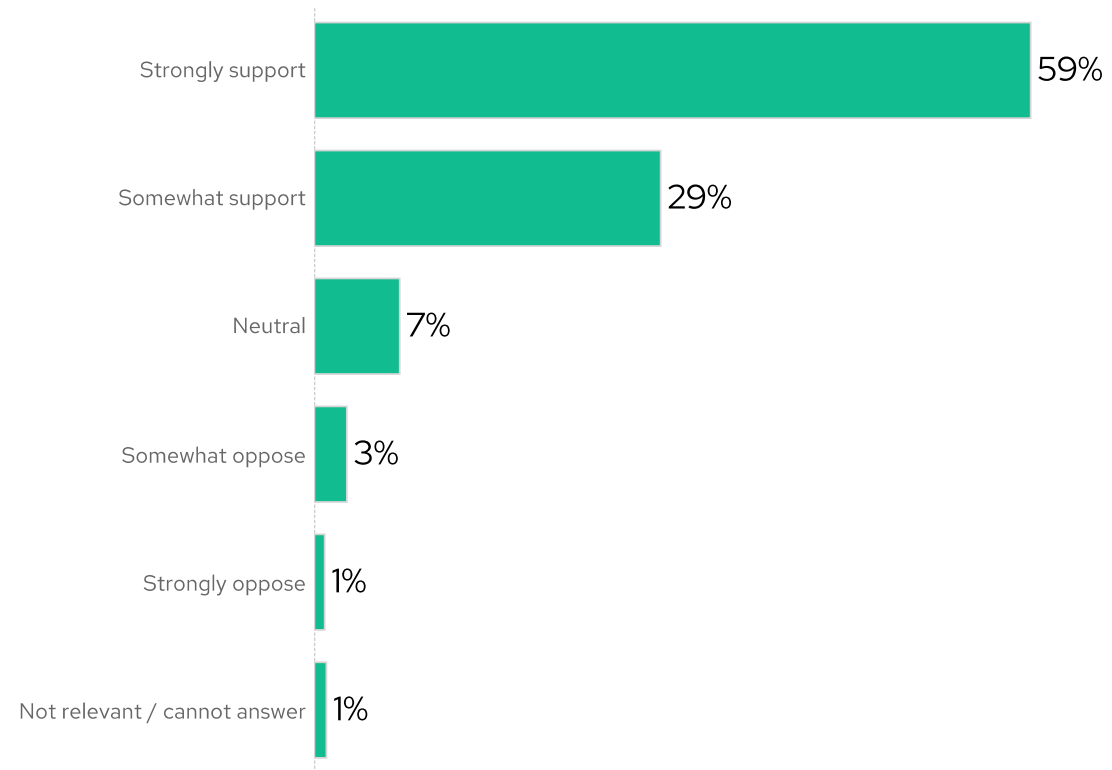

- 1. To what extent do you support the government's commitment to providing free breakfast clubs in all primary schools in England?
- 2. What do you think the benefits of free school breakfasts are to children and young people?
- 3. What statements match how you feel about the government's commitment to universal primary breakfast clubs?

Question one: Overall Results

To what extent do you support the government's commitment to providing free breakfast clubs in all primary schools in England?

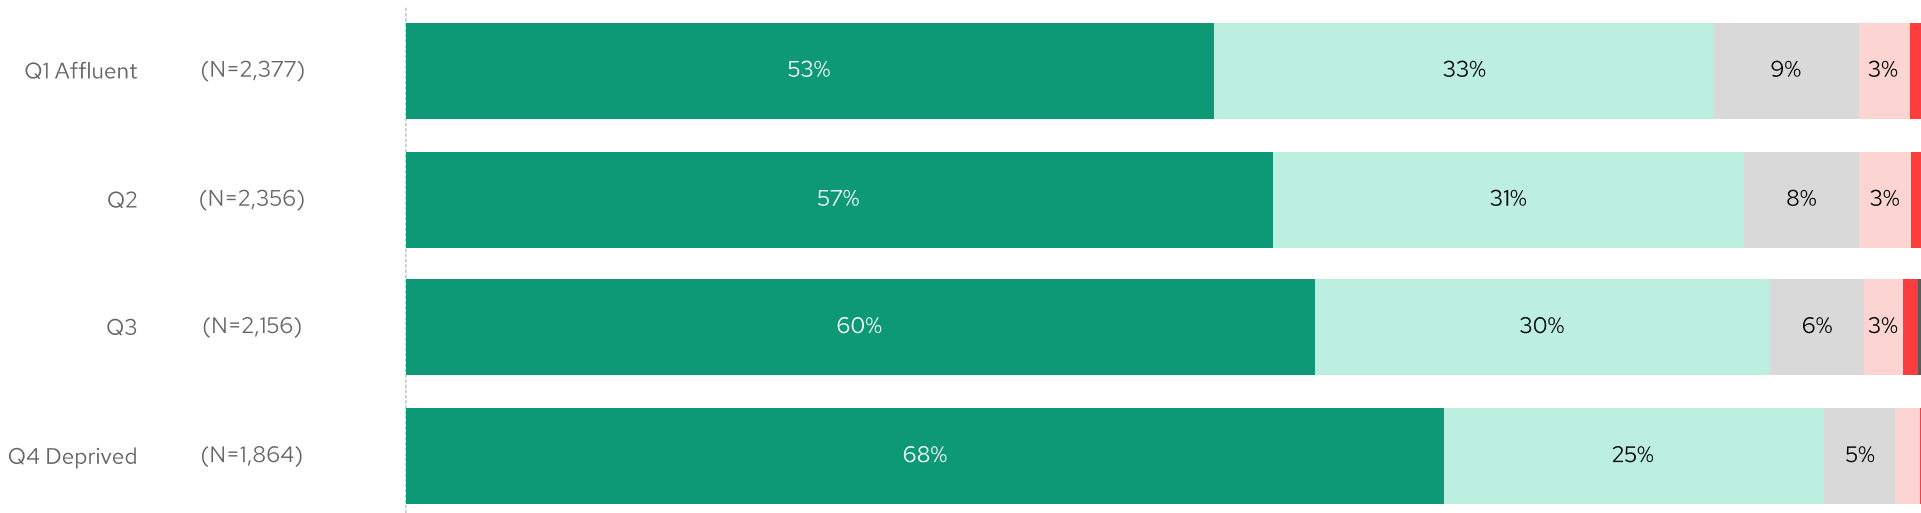

Question answered by 10,434 teachers on 20/08/2024 (results weighted to reflect national teacher and school demographics)

Question one: Interesting findings

To what extent do you support the government's commitment to providing free breakfast clubs in all primary schools in England?

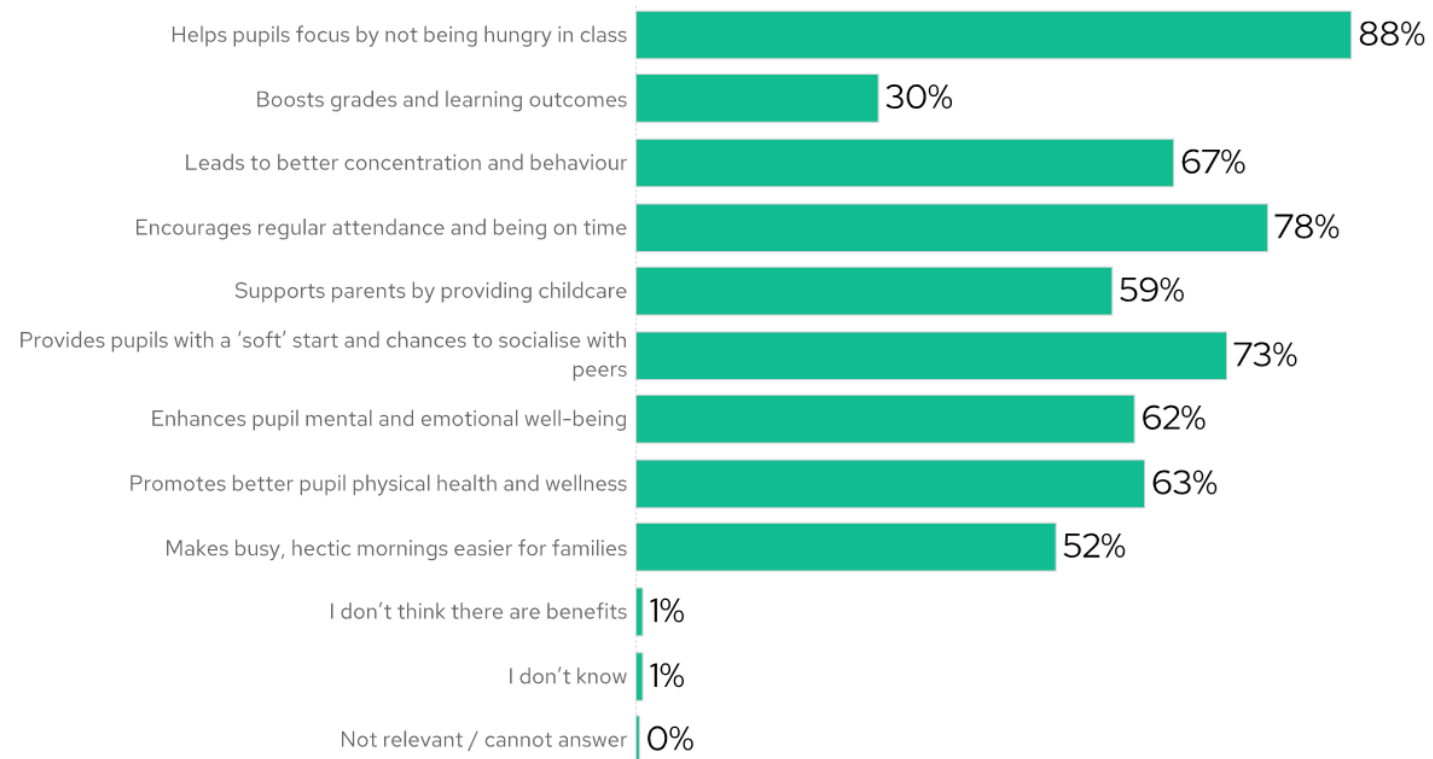

Question answered by 8,753 teachers on 20/08/2024 (results weighted to reflect national teacher and school demographics)

Question two: Overall Results

What do you think the benefits of free school breakfasts are to children and young people?

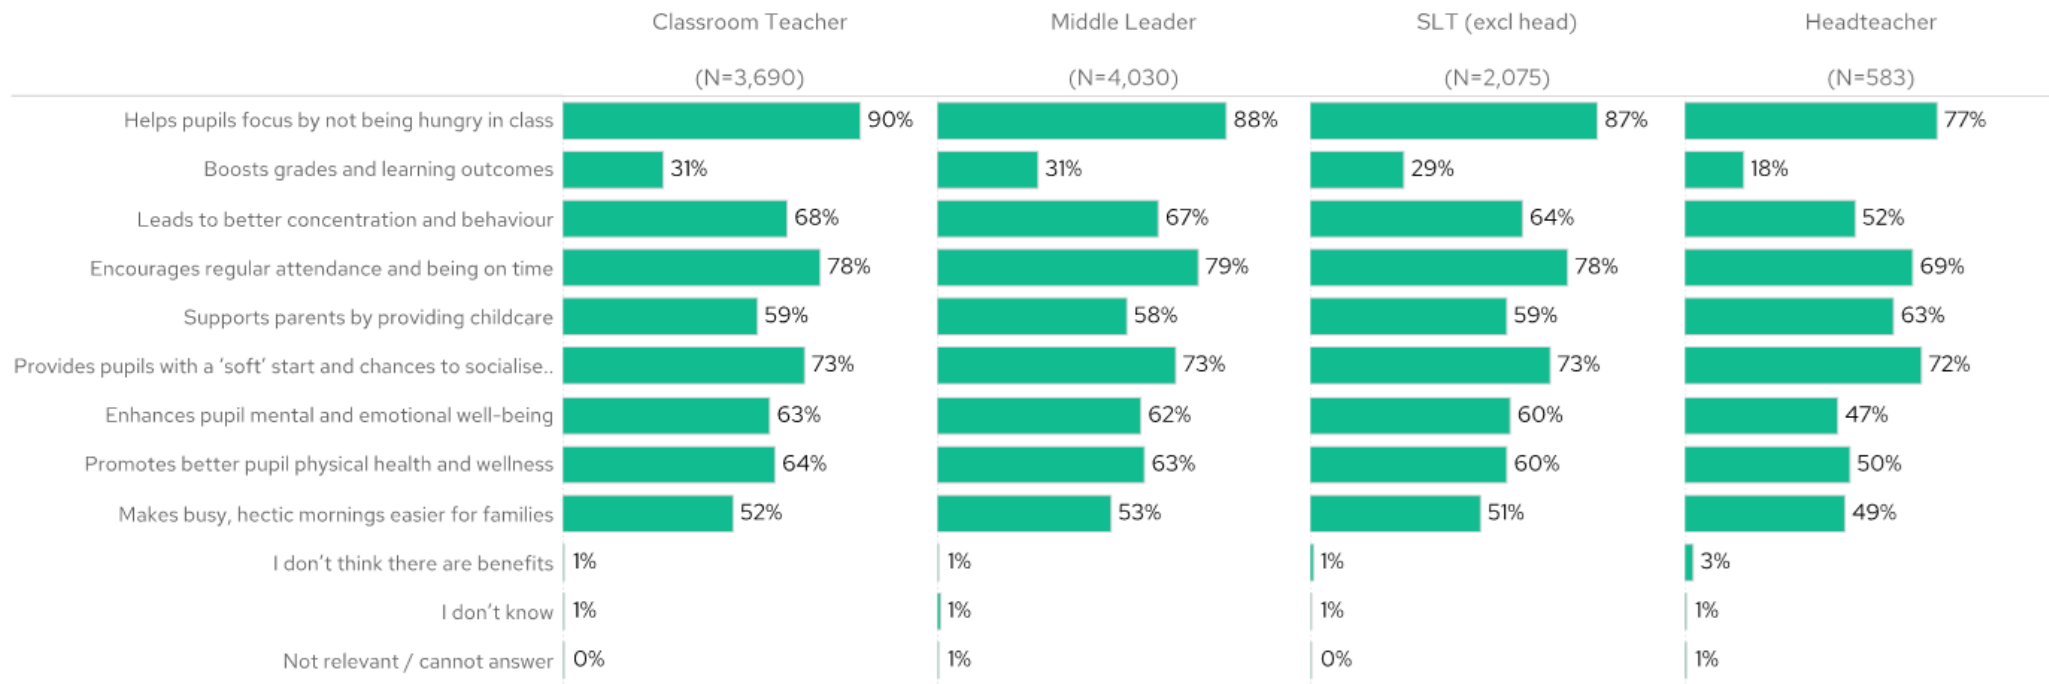

Question answered by 10,378 teachers on 20/08/2024 (results weighted to reflect national teacher and school demographics)

Question two: Interesting findings

What do you think the benefits of free school breakfasts are to children and young people?

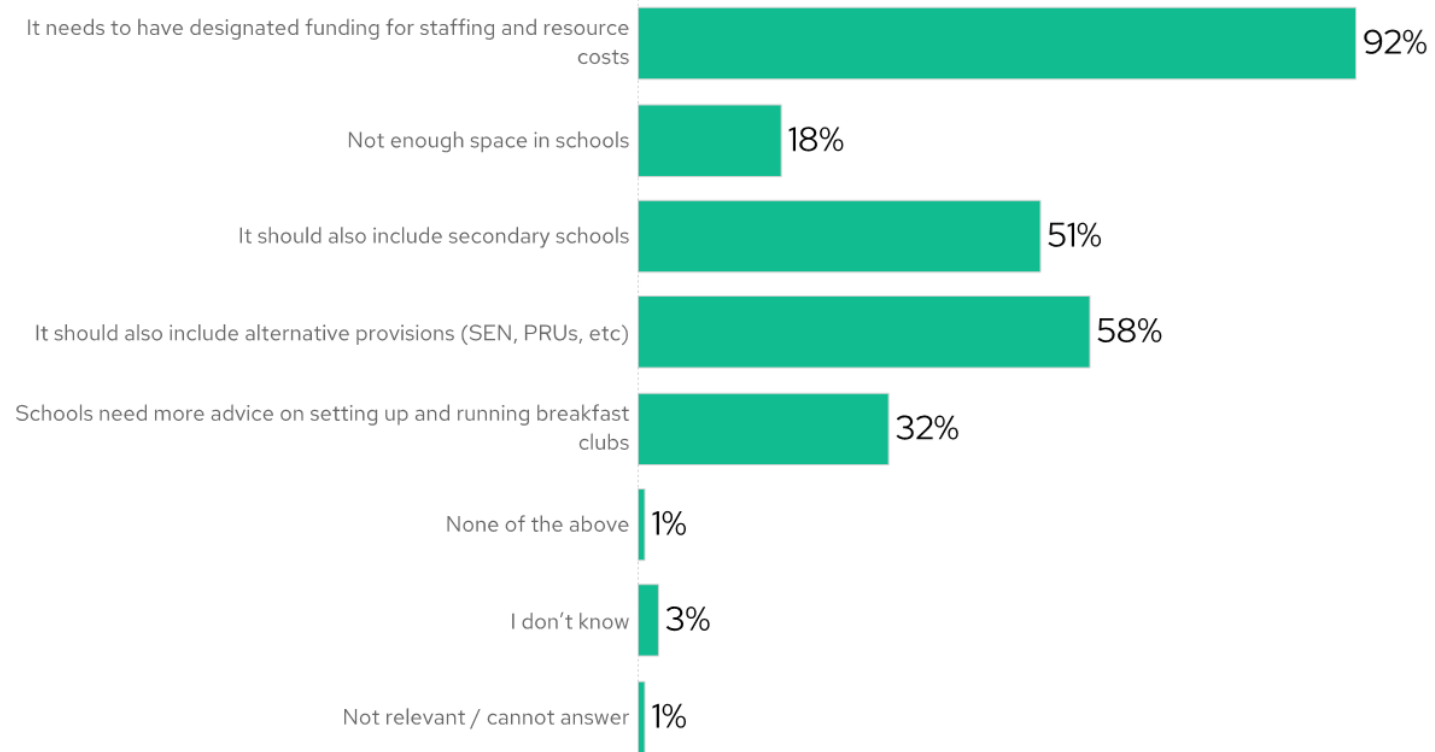

Question answered by 10,378 teachers on 20/08/2024 (results weighted to reflect national teacher and school demographics)

Question three: Overall Results

What statements match how you feel about the government's commitment to universal primary breakfast clubs?

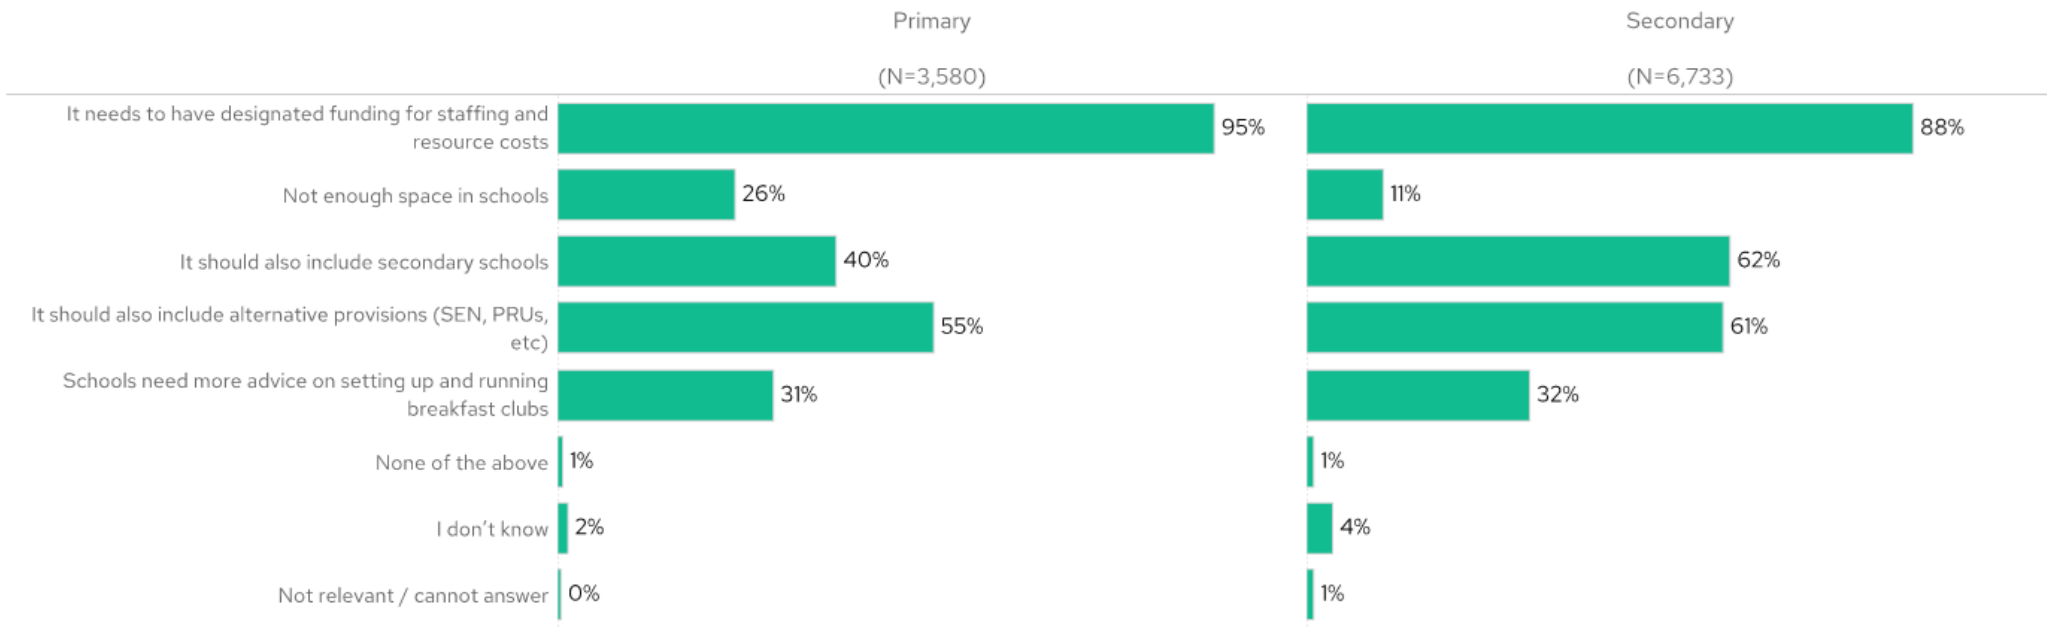

Question answered by 10,313 teachers on 20/08/2024 (results weighted to reflect national teacher and school demographics)

Question three: Interesting findings

What statements match how you feel about the government’s commitment to universal primary breakfast clubs?

Question answered by 10,313 teachers on 20/08/2024 (results weighted to reflect national teacher and school demographics)